SDMFC Mission, Vision, & Impact

Mission: The San Diego Military Family Collaborative supports and strengthens the military-connected community through education, advocacy, and engagement.

2020 Vision: SDMFC envisions a County where all members of San Diego's military-connected community can easily gain access and navigate critical information, programs, and resources when faced with military life challenges through streamlined services and a network of support

About SDMFC: From six organizations in 2010, the SDMFC grew by word of mouth and today comprises more than 500 representatives from over 200 unique public, private, faith-based, military, and governmental organizations.

Together as a community, in partnership with active duty, reservists, veterans, and their families, San Diego will give military men and women the just response deserving of their sacrifice and service.

Social Advocates for Youth, San Diego provides program and administration support for SDMFC.
